

CARL FRIEDRICH CHRISTIAN FASCH

SONATAS AND CHARACTER PIECES edited by Christopher Hogwood

The second volume of keyboard music from the reclusive Carl Fasch contains two unpublished sonatas (one unusually in the key of B flat minor) and his considerable output of “character pieces”, short descriptive works which justify contemporary opinion that he was the true successor to C.P.E. Bach. These individual vignettes are ideal for playing on either clavichord or fortepiano and provide an expressive foil to the more extrovert and extended sonatas in the first volume. The third and final volume will contain all Fasch’s keyboard variations.
