

HARDENACK OTTO CONRAD ZINCK

VARIATIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS PIECES

edited by Christopher Hogwood

The final instalment of the three-volume collection of Zinck's complete keyboard music contains his sets of variations (one on the tune made popular by Mozart, "Lison dormait", and the other a surprisingly virtuoso set on a simple children's song) and a sequence of his very individual miscellaneous pieces, including the atmospheric setting for keyboard solo of "Das Traumschiff" (complete with nautical illustration). Many of his teaching pieces are published here for the first time from a manuscript source in the Royal Library, Copenhagen, and include original fingering from the composer. All the works in this volume would be effective on either clavichord or fortepiano.

What the critics said about volume 1:

"I find the sonatas to be all that Cramer so enthusiastically described, and I unreservedly recommend them as a source of delightfully expressive music for either clavichord or early piano."

The Consort

"... an excellent start to the planned three-volume Complete Keyboard Works."

British Clavichord Society Newsletter

"... powerfully original, it is to be hoped that these sonatas will quickly find a place in the repertoires of all serious players and will take their rightful place in concerts."
